

JHGCC

The Hopkins Graduate Student Consulting Club

Case Interview Workshops

When: Wed, Mar 11th and 25th, 6-7pm
Where: School of Public Health W3008

In these two workshops, we will cover “how to interpret charts and figures” and “how to perform calculations and draw conclusions”. The participants will be divided into 2 groups: Beginner and Advanced, and the contents delivered will be designed based on the respective experience levels. And don't forget that there will be free pizza and drinks! See our website for details on the Case Interview Workshops here.

The Board and JHGCC Alumni

Professional Development Program

Where: Homewood Campus

The Professional Development Program, housed in the Whiting School Center for Leadership Education (CLE), is designed to address the needs of graduate students who want to broaden their skills and knowledge in areas like working on teams, entrepreneurship, communication, and project management. The program offers a series of twenty, 7-week courses in topics such as Writing Business Plans, Managing People, Writing Winning Proposals and Improving Presentations. Courses are open to all graduate students and post-doctoral fellows at Johns Hopkins and will be offered on the Homewood and downtown campuses. Whether students want to start a business, find an internship or hash through career decisions, they will find an open door and a resourceful sounding board in CLE faculty. For more course information, click here.

Business and Consulting Bootcamp

When: Fri, Mar 6th, 9am-6pm
Where: Miller Research Building G01

This year we'll be hosting our inaugural Business and Consulting Bootcamp. Featuring speakers from the Carey Business School and the Whiting School of Engineering. Alumni consultants from the industry will also participate and offer their personal advice on interview preparations. Due to the high interest, new registrations will be closed for this year.
